Overview

1. GM's must be active to be part of the CCHL. GMs are expected to submit lines on regular basis and reply to GM's. Lack of activity will be a cause for dismissal.
2. Chirping and having fun is expected but a level of respect is always expected. Know your audience. If you have a problem with someone message the commissioner.
3. This is a cash league, therefore you must be paid up before seasons starts.

League Payment

1. Each CCHL season costs $25 CAD. This is non-refundable once the season starts.
2. If you pay for future seasons these payments are also non-refundable.
3. The League will use a portion of the entry fees to pay for the website/simulator.

League Format

1. The League will run 2 full sim seasons per year. Sims will be every day at 8:30am EST (and 8:30pm EST when double-day Sims).
2. Players will age naturally on their own birthdays.
3. Rerates will be completed by the simulator automatically at the start of the Offseason.
4. There will be one NHL rerate after every Even Season.
5. There will be one Farm rerate after every Odd Season.
6. The sim will be using the 1.5 engine as it is the most realistic in its results.
7. All money is paid out via Awards.

Entry Draft – Prospects

1. The Entry Draft will take place every offseason and will consist of 3 rounds.
2. The lottery system will include the top 3 picks. Once the top 3 picks are determined, all draft positions remain the same. Only the top 3 picks will be revealed using <https://www.draftpicklottery.com/lottery.php>.
3. Prospect ratings will be based on their last full year statistics from their respective League, using the Prospect Calculator found on the site under Tools > Prospect Calculator.
4. All Entry level contracts will be $925,000 with a 3-year term, unless being created based on their NHL stats then they will receive their NHL salary.

Salary Cap

1. The Pro salary cap is set at 81.5 million and the floor will be 60.2 million.
2. The Farm salary cap is set at 36 million.
3. The maximum amount per year of a deal in a contract is 14 million. The minimum is 700k.

Roster Requirements

1. Each team must carry at least 22 skaters on their Pro roster.
 - 12 Forwards
 - 6 Defensemen
 - 2 Goalies
 - 2 Scratches (healthy or injured)
2. Each team must carry 5 goalies.
3. Any Player (Skater or Goaltender) making $3 million or more will only be allowed to play at the pro level.
4. Teams may not have more than 55 contracts at any one time.
5. Pro teams have a max of 23 players.
6. Rosters minimum is 45.
7. Skaters with a 730V or above will only be allowed to play pro. Goalies that are 830V and above also can only play pro. When players reach this rating, they will graduate to the pro level.

Free Agency

1. FA will be done on the site under Transactions > Free Agents (Make Offer).
2. Free Agency will start with a 24-hr window where you can Offer Sheet any RFA if you have the compensation (see #6). Once bidding is over, teams have 24 hrs to match the Offer Sheet or accept compensation (after 24hrs without a response the commissioner will automatically match the Offer Sheet).
3. Next teams with eligible RFA's will be contacted to see if teams wish to take their RFA's to Arbitration (see RFA Arbitration) or release them to the Free Agency pool.
4. The age for RFA is 23 yrs old or younger.
5. RFA status is set at the beginning of the season. If a player is 23 on the 1st day of the Regular Season, he will retain his RFA status for the remainder of the season and heading into the next Offseason.
6. To make RFA bidding more available, the picks do NOT have to be your own. They will be your picks when available. Then it will be picks from the lowest seeded team available. RFA compensation will go as follows:
 - $1,034,249 annual cap hit or less - No compensation
 - $1,034,249 to $1,567,043 - 3rd round pick of next draft

7. Any player 24 years and older is considered a UFA.
8. The maximum length of a contract is 6 years.
9. Players signed via free agency CANNOT be traded until the team's 41-game mark of that season.
10. As part of the trade rules, just like with everything else, you must disclose the player's contract status (extension offers) during trade negotiations.

RFA Arbitration

1. In the case a GM fails to sign a RFA they can take the player to arbitration. The league will look at the players' age, overall rating, and comparable players' salaries.
2. The league will then look at these factors and send an arbitration offer on a 1-year deal AND a 3-year deal. The team owning the rights to the RFA need to choose the 1-year deal or 3-year deal.
3. NOTE: If all 3 chances have NOT been exhausted the player will then automatically go to UFA. No exceptions. The players' name MUST appear on the follow page on the site.

Trading

1. Trading process:
 - Every season (from the start of Offseason to Trade Deadline) each GM gets one Veto Challenge (VC). They can use this challenge to have a trade reviewed by a random selection of 3 GMs.
 - If a trade is flagged to be reviewed, the GMs involved in the trade can submit a brief explanation/reasoning behind the trade to be used by the Trade Reviewers.
 - If the trade gets Vetoed, the GM keeps the challenge to use again. If the trade is reviewed and is accepted, the GM loses their challenge for the remainder of that season.
 - With this challenge there will be a 24hr window given (after the trade is posted/accepted on Slack) to allow a GM to submit a VC to the Blackhawks GM (if challenging a deal involving the Blackhawks, submit your VC to Predators GM). The GM using the VC can specify if they don't want certain GM's part of the Review due to conflict of interest.
2. No Pro team may ever drop below 720V after a trade.
3. Trading can consist of Players, Prospects, Draft picks (future considerations are not permitted).
4. Each team will be limited to 9 trades a season. Except during the week before the trade deadline, you will have an additional 3. Offseason trades are unlimited.
5. Draft Picks may be traded up to 3 years in the future, but all picks must be paid for in advance.
6. You cannot trade for a player at the deadline, and then trade the player back to the original team until 41 games into the next season. You can trade him to other teams. But not the originating team.
7. Teams must disclose all information about players. Such as but not limited to UFA status, contracts that were signed at the age of 36+, contract negotiation status (how many attempts, details of attempts), etc.
8. Trades involving only Farm players, Prospects or Picks will not count towards the 9-trade limit.
9. You cannot trade a player for nothing.

Waivers

1. Any player 23 and younger can pass through without waivers. All players 24 and older must pass through waivers. If a player turns 24 after the start of the regular season, he will be considered waiver exempt.
2. If a player gets claimed off waivers, he goes to the PRO roster of the claiming team and must officially pass through waivers to be eligible for the minors. (See Note 1 below).
3. Waivers will NOT be in effect during the offseason.

Note 1: If a player is waived and claimed, then waived again and the original team claims the player on the 2nd waive, the player can automatically be assigned to the CCAHL. But only if re-claimed by the original waiving team.

Farm Graduations (force ups)

1. After each rerate, all skaters who are 73OV or above will be considered "pro only" players and will graduate from the Farm to the Pro level.
2. Goalies with an OV rating of 83OV or above will graduate to the "pro only" status.

Player Buyouts

1. There is a maximum of 3 Buyouts per Team per Offseason.

Lineup Restrictions

1. Forward lines can be set to a maximum of 35%

3. Once a team has been officially eliminated from the playoffs, all goalie limitations are removed. In fact, you will be expected to play your best goalie as often as possible.

Cap Relief (Salary Retention)

Don't look at it as retention, but more of a Cap Relief. Teams can offer Cap Relief in form of Special Cap Hit that will act similar to a retention. Player's salary doesn't change, it is the Special Cap Hit that gets adjusted. Team retains $3M on a player in a deal, receiving Team will get a -$3M value go towards their Teams Special Cap Hit while the team retaining will get an additional +$3M added to their Special Cap Hit.
